

ELEVATOR COMING

WILL BE SHIPPED FROM COUNCIL BLUFFS NEXT WEEK.

TOTAL COST IS $1483

Committee Is Still Short $250 But an Effort Will Be Made to Raise That Amount.

The elevator which was ordered a few weeks ago for the St. Francis hospital will be shipped next week from the factory at Council Bluffs, Ia., and is to be installed at the hospital by June 15.

The elevator and the installation of it will cost $1,483. The elevator is an electric one, modern and has the latest improvements and is specially designed for hospitals. Other hospitals over the country are using the same style of an elevator.

The soliciting committee, Messrs. C. J. Alderman and Nick Sturm, have raised the money to purchase the needed improvement for the hospital with the exception of $250. An effort will be made to raise that amount and as many have not subscribed toward the fund, it is hoped that they will now respond. Remember the elevator is a very great improvement for the hospital, the best institution in this part of the state, and takes the place of an old elevator, that is out-of-date and is fitted only to haul heavy loads instead of sick people. Subscriptions will be received if any one cares to contribute to the good cause, at the newspaper offices in the city or by sending them to Nick Sturm, who is treasurer of the fund. They will be appreciated by the hospital.

The soliciting committee, Messrs. Alderman and Sturm, while out in the city getting subscriptions, were unable to see all and hope that those they did not see will respond as the committee will appreciate it.

One-half of the money for the elevator is to be paid when the elevator is shipped, and the other half in thirty days after it is installed. All subscribers to the fund are requested to mail their checks for the amount they wish to contribute to the fund, to Nick Sturm, treasurer of the fund.

TO INSTITUTE SUIT.

Against Wabash Railroad in Federal Court at St. Louis—Filed by Prosecuting Attorney Wright.

Prosecuting Attorney George Pat Wright filed an information Thursday against the Wabash railroad company in the Federal court at St. Louis for the purpose of seeking permission of the court to institute and prosecute a suit against that railroad company to remove and correct the State street bridge. It is necessary to take this step as the railroad is in the hands of receivers and if permission is secured, then the case will come up before the circuit court here.

Many complaints are being made by the people about the bridge. It is impossible to get a full load of hay under the bridge.

BUYS CEMENT MACHINE.

Hughes Township to Have One to Make Cement Culverts—Is a Good Roads Township.

Hughes township, one of the banner good roads townships in the county, is to take more advanced steps for good roads. The following is from this week's Graham Record and shows what they are doing:

Hughes township board at their meeting Friday night contracted with the Merillat Culvert Core Co., of Winfield, Iowa, for a machine to make cement culverts. This board has been taking advanced steps the past two or three years in the art of "good road making." It is true their plans have been little more than experiments, but it is also true that the township is fast developing into the banner road township of the county, if indeed she does not now occupy that envied position.

Two years ago the township adopted the "contract system" for working roads. This would have proven entirely satisfactory had they been able to get the work done at the time needed. But, inasmuch as Hughes is largely an agriculture and stock raising township, and her citizens owning large farms and having more work than they could do, the bids for the township contracts necessarily had to come from outside districts. This greatly handicapped them, as the experiment was new and not generally known to outsiders, therefore their bids were limited, but the board thinks had they been able to get the work done, it would have been a great improvement over the old way.

Hughes township is "favored" with a large number of bridges and culverts to keep up. It has tried tile and corrugated steel culverts with fairly good success and was among the first in the county to build cement bridges and culverts. The frame work for shaping the culverts have been made of wood, and while the culvert was alright they proved a little expensive, as the wooden frame was generally lost after one time using it. The new machine is made of steel and shapes the culvert to any size desired, up to 48 inches, and one machine will do for all culverts.

IS DANGEROUS MAN

ROGERS BEING HELD AT JAIL HERE, ESCAPED FROM CLARINDA

WILL NOT TAKE HIM BACK

Asylum Says He Is a Hospital Tramp and Has Been In Sixteen or Seventeen Asylums.

Walter Rogers, who was arrested in Maryville last week, and is now in the county jail here, is an escaped lunatic from the asylum at Clarinda, stated Dr. Max Witte of that asylum in a letter to Sheriff W. R. Tilson. Dr. Witte also says that he is a dangerous man to let run at large as he has criminal tendencies and that as far as they know has been in 16 or 17 asylums over the country.

In the letter, Dr. Witte said that if Sheriff Tilson would bring the man to Braddyville, Ia., that he would send some one for him. But evidently they had a change of heart, for Dr. Witte telephoned to Sheriff Tilson Wednesday night and told him that they would not take him back at Clarinda, since he was a hospital tramp and had escaped, leaving that state. He said that the board of control of the hospital had met on Wednesday and decided to not to take him back as the man did not reside in that state.

Sheriff Tilson will bring the matter up before the county court at their session to be held next week and let them decide. Rogers is about 35 years old and was caught here turning switches in the Wabash and Burlington railroad yards. He escaped from the Clarinda asylum two weeks ago and claimed that he walked from that place to College Springs, Ia., and from there to Blanchard, Ia., where he caught a train and came to Maryville. He was sent to the Clarinda asylum last fall and was in that place until the time he escaped.

LOOKS MUCH BETTER

IMPROVEMENTS MADE AT OAK HILL CEMETERY BRINGS

ABOUT A GREAT CHANGE

Committee in Charge Is Giving Personal Attention to Work Being Done—Was in Shameful Plight.

Since the city on account of limited funds has been unable to keep in good condition the Oak Hill cemetery, north of Maryville, many of the grave owners have gone together and have raised $250 for the purpose of improving the cemetery.

The committee that has the work in charge is composed of Fred Kurtz, Mrs. C. T. Bell and S. G. Gillingham. Mr. Kurtz is giving the work his personal supervision and at the present time, the road leading to the cemetery has been dragged and improved, the grass in the cemetery mowed, and the entrance road into the place has been filled with cinders. The road to the west of the cemetery is now being put in good condition and hitchhacks will be put up soon on the west side of the road for the convenience of the people. The committee will make an effort to see that the sidewalks are in good condition from the city to the cemetery and that the road is dragged from time to time.

Heretofore, the cemetery has not been kept in very good shape. The grass has been allowed to grow and it has been a very unsightly place. With the improvements already made and what they will make later on, the cemetery will look like a new place.

Lon Shanks, who is sexton of the cemetery, is only allowed $60 a year. He has been unable to keep the place in good shape on this salary.

Mayor Robey and the city are working in sympathy with the committee and an effort will be made by the city by next year so as they will take more care of the cemetery. It is hoped, however, that all the grave owners will help out the committee in the work.

TEST WELLS LOOK ENCOURAGING

Wells Being Dug in East Maryville to See if Supply of Water for City Can Be Had.

Six test wells have been dug east of Maryville near the Wabash railroad by the board of public works to see if a well supply of water could be had for the city, and all of them are good wells and look encouraging for a well supply. In all of the wells is a good supply of water and in two of them, the indications were excellent that a good quantity of water could be found, as a bed of sand and gravel was found.

Work on these wells will stop until Monday when more machinery will be had. They intend to go deeper in some of these wells, as some of them are only thirty feet deep.

DICKENS FITTED FOR STAGE

Kate Field, Excellent Judge of Character, Confident He Might Have Been Great Actor.

No one ever paid a much higher tribute to Dickens than did Kate Field. She had the soul of a poet, a discriminating taste in art and literature and wide knowledge of the world. In mentality she was fully as strong as either of her brilliant brothers, David, Dudley, Stephen J. or Cyrus W., and she certainly was as good if not a better judge of character.

She once wrote an appreciation of Dickens in which she declared the world lost its greatest actor when Boz became a writer. She gave a description of one of Dickens' readings that was masterly in its vividness of detail. Such versatility as she credited Dickens with displaying as he assumed the character of first one and then another of his creations, the pathos, the humor, the tragedy he put into a tone; the marvelous way in which he stirred the emotions of old and young in his audience, would appear to be a bit extravagant were it not that now and then in later years some old man, looked upon as stern and unemotional, told with faltering voice how he stood in line all one night to buy a ticket to one of Boz' readings, and then went on to talk just about as Miss Field wrote, only before he got as far along in his story the tears were running down his wrinkled cheeks—his old heart strings still attune to the magic of the Master.

New Office.

The long-discussed Greater Berlin "Zweck-Verband" (county council is the only intelligible translation available) has formally come into being with the election of Herr Steinger, city chamberlain of Berlin, as "verbandsdirektor." His functions will be many and difficult, for the "Verband" is a league of the cities, towns, villages and boroughs which comprise "Greater Berlin," and is intended to create a metropolitan area of 200 square miles, with a gross population of 4,250,000, over which there is to be central administrative authority. Each community sends delegates to the "league council, and it is this body over which Herr Steinger will preside. Berlin in a spirit of magnanimity declined to accept the majority of delegates to which its vast population entitled it, and it is content to be voted down on occasion by a hostile combination of lesser boroughs. The "Verband" will not interfere in any respect with the individual liberties and prerogatives of its constituent members.

Buried Without Trappings of Woe.

In accordance with the written wish of the late Graham Gilmour, the well-known alman, who met his death at Richmond, Surrey, England, the other day—that his funeral might be "merry and bright," the coffin was taken from Richmond to Mickleham in a motor car, which was draped with blue, and the grave was lined with azaleas and ivy. The flowers sent were principally daffodils, violets, and carnations. A bunch of mimosa and violets bore the inscription: "In sorrowful memory of one whose youthful spirit and kindly words cheered a day in an old woman's lonely life."

His "Dutch Courage."

A rat found his food supply missing after the distillery was closed and there were no more scraps from dinner pails. He had always been a precise rat and a teetotaler, but now the emergency was extreme and he took to drink.

A small quantity of young liquor had been left behind and this the rat tasted cautiously. It was like liquid barbed wire and the jolt was instantaneous. He took another drink and straightened up, filled with new sensations. A third put him on his haunches and he exclaimed loudly: "Bring on your cat."

Will Picnic Tomorrow.

Students and teachers of the Maryville Business College will play tomorrow. The clickety-click-click of the typewriters and the adding machines will not be heard, neither will the trial balances refuse to balance; and the shorthand notes may look like chicken tracks—for who cares. Something near one hundred students will go to Bridgewater, near Arkoe, tomorrow morning on the Burlington, and will spend the day in sport and recreation. The Burlington will put on a special car for them, and a great time is expected.

Theatre Party and Luncheon.

Miss Lou Garrett entertained with a theatre party and luncheon Wednesday night, for the pleasure of her guest, Miss Florence Goodson of Kansas City. A four-course luncheon was served at Reddard's. The table was prettily laid for a dozen guests. Crystal baskets of red clover blossoms were placed at intervals on the long table, while woven strands of the stems and blossoms of the same flower hung from the chandelier and were fastened to the corners and sides of the table. Those in the party were Miss Goodson, Mrs. Luther Forsyth and her sister, Mrs. Frank Shoemaker, Jr., of Oklahoma City, Okla., Mrs. Ferdinand Townsend, Mrs. Clive Graves, Mrs. Fayette Bellows, Miss Jennie Garrett, Miss Maud McCluskey, Miss Clara Sturm, Miss Mae Orear, Miss Jessie Parcher and the hostess.

Her Eightieth Birthday.

On Monday May 27, a most enjoyable surprise was given Mrs. Julia Hart, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. H. Carmichael, northwest of Maryville, by a number of her friends and former neighbors, the occasion being her 80th birthday. She received a number of gifts of postcards, bouquets and potted plants. Dinner was served soon after the guests arrived and the afternoon passed quickly with music, social conversation and eating ice cream. The guests departed, wishing their aged friend many more such happy birthday anniversaries. Those present were: Mrs. S. W. Scott, Mrs. John Griffey, Mrs. S. E. Fisher, Mrs. R. Neidel, Mrs. A. S. Hart, Jr., Mrs. Everett Carmichael and the Misses Grace and Nellie Fisher and Esther Neidel and Little Mary Fisher, Helen Glaze, Loren and Alta Hart. Mrs. Hart came to Nodaway county with her husband, the late A. C. Hart, in 1870, and lived on a farm near Maryville 30 years. Since that time she has resided in Stanberry where her husband died in 1908. She and her family have always been held in the highest esteem and many friends will join her guests in wishing her more years of contentment and health.

Dew Drop Inn Club.

"The Dew Drop Inn Club" met Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. N. Orme. Those present were: Mrs. Claud Moore, Mrs. Oliver Jones, Mrs. Albert Orme, Mrs. Harry Farrow, Mrs. E. A. Baker and the hostess. The children were: Mildred Wendell and Velma Jones, Kermit Moore, Thelma, Lulu and Lloyd Orme, Andrew Farrar, Alene and Cleo Holt. An hour was spent in fancy work, then followed the study of Alaska participated in by each member. Luncheon was served by the hostess and a very pleasant afternoon was spent. The next meeting will be in two weeks at the home of Mrs. John Sprague. The members are to take their work, and Canada is the subject for study.

Mrs. Robinson's Reception.

Wednesday was not a June day, but it was a perfect day, even though a poet or somebody has said that there is nothing so perfect as a day in June. It was a perfectly comfortable day, for a reception and not one of the many guests who attended the reception given by Mrs. James B. Robinson Wednesday afternoon would have exchanged it for any June day they ever saw. The guests were greeted in the reception hall by Mrs. F. P. Robinson, Mrs. Charles T. Bell and Mrs. Frank G. Shoemaker, Sr. In the parlors Mrs. Robinson presented her two nieces, Miss Mabel Lloyd of Wichita, Kan., and Miss Lela Chilton of St. Joseph, in whose honor she was entertaining. The reception hall and parlors were decorated in ferns and white peonies. Assisting the hostess in the parlors were Mrs. R. G. Sanders, Mrs. William Wallis, Jr., Mrs. Charles Jackson and Mrs. Ralph W. Eversole. Punch was served by Mrs. Ferdinand Townsend and Miss Donna Sisson, who were assisted by Miss Marie Brink, Miss Laura Barnmann, Miss Helen Leffler and Miss Lulu Todd. In the dining room, where the ices and cakes were served, the decorations were of Killarney roses, in yellow. The hostesses here were Mrs. George P. Bellows and Mrs. W. A. Rickenbrode and they were assisted by Miss Emma Kildow, Miss Majory Willey, Miss Geneva Willey and Miss Mildred Robinson. Masterpieces of music were played all afternoon from the victrola.

Her "Washout" On the Line.

The Sigma Delta Chi sorority gave a novel "linen shower" to one of its members Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Carterine Miller, with Miss Emma Kildow as hostess. The affair was a surprise for Miss Mary Orcutt, who is to be married next Tuesday, June 4, to Mr. Arthur L. Fisher of Tyro, Kan. Miss Orcutt supposed the Chi's had gathered for one of their delightful times together, as it had been a year since all had met, several of the members, herself included, having been engaged in teaching a long distance from home. Everybody knows that these sorority girls are noted for their jokes and tricks on one another, so when soon after the arrival of everybody, Miss Mary was blindfolded and told that she was to be initiated that there was "a wash out on the line," and that she was to go and see what she could do for it, she gamely started out to meet her everlasting fate by falling into a tub of water, or meet some other calamity, as she supposed. She was given a market basket and led to the dining room, where, on feeling around, she found a clothes line stretched about the room. She was told to take the articles from the line and put them in the basket, which she did. On returning to the parlor with her burden she was unblindfolded and found in her basket eighteen pieces of beautifully embroidered linen, gifts of the sorority girls. The rest of the evening was spent informally and refreshments were served. Those in the party were: Misses Mary and Alice Orcutt, Miss LaRue Kemp, Miss Estella Mason, Miss Lois Halley, Miss Phyllis Saylor, Miss Nelle Hudson, Miss Margaret McDougall, Miss Dora Day, Miss Hettie Anthony, Miss Emma Kildow, Miss Maud Bent, Miss Grace Langan, Miss Mary Ogden, Miss Golda Airy, Miss Jessie Mutz, Ruby Lorraine.

Memorial Day Flowers

The beautiful custom of honoring those who laid down their lives in sacrifice to the principles for which they fought, and showing a tribute to our loved ones who have died, by covering their graves with flowers at least once a year is one of the most inspiring and poetic breaks in the busy life of our country and it is a credit that Memorial Day is observed with increasing interest each year. The proper observance of Memorial Day requires the right kind of flowers, such flowers as we have in profusion, loose or in appropriate Memorial Designs, etc. Each year we offer a better quality of flowers and our Memorial Day flowers are no exception. INSURRECTOS TAKE TO HILLS

Cuban Negroes Break Up Into Small Bands of Raiders.

TO FORCE CLASH WITH MARINES

Surrender to Americans Would Save Many From Trial for Treason by Island Government—Gomez says Revolt is Crushed.

Washington, May 30.—Desultory and destructive guerrilla warfare is expected to follow the mobilization of the Cuban government troops in Guantanamo, where the negro revolt is strongest, according to meager advice received at the state department.

Dispatches indicate that insurrectos have broken up into small rapidly moving bands, conducting raids of destruction.

The situation resembles that existing in Mexico in the early stages of the revolution. The criminals are beginning to take advantage of the disturbed conditions for organized robbery and plunder. As for the real rebels, the government military leaders appear to have reached the conclusion that they will not stand up for a regular pitched battle. Therefore instead of attempting to surround the rebels, they are dividing their forces into small units to guard foreign properties. Evidence of this purpose appeared when 40 rural guardsmen were ordered to proceed to Daiquiri to protect the property of the Spanish-American Iron company.

Quiet at Nipe Bay.
Naval advisers from the commander of the gunboat Nashville, which made a record breaking run from the south to the north coast of Cuba in answer to an alarm from the American owned plantation in the vicinity of Nipe Bay, confirmed the report as to existing quiet in that quarter.

A naval officer who has had much experience in Cuban methods expressed the belief that the Cuban insurrectos were now meditating forcing a clash with the American marines near Guantanamo. Of course, they could not expect to prevail in a battle, but their purpose might be served by inducing the American marine or naval officers to accept their surrender, so that they might not be forced to yield to the Cuban government forces and to be tried for treason and perhaps killed.

Gomez Issues Proclamation.
Havana, May 30.—The capital still awaits with keenest expectancy news of decisive fighting in the western part of Oriente province, where the national and insurgent forces have been face to face for several days.

In the meantime President Gomez has deemed it expedient to make an official statement with respect to the situation as the government views it, and has issued a proclamation in which he says the revolt is crushed everywhere except in Oriente, and that the majority of the negro race is loyal to the government.

PLANS READY FOR KANSAS WAR

OPPOSING FORCES TO WORK FROM LAWRENCE AND OLATHE.

Maneuvers Will Cover Large Area and Will Develop Interesting Problems for Commanders.

Washington, May 30.—It was stated at the war department that arrangements for the maneuver campaign at Fort Leavenworth are nearing completion. The tentative plan of campaign concentrates the opposing forces at Lawrence and Olathe, about 30 miles apart. The Red force, which is concentrated at Lawrence, will consist of the entire Kansas national guard, a regiment of militia infantry from Oklahoma, and field artillery, cavalry, signal corps and medical troops from Fort Riley and Fort Leavenworth.

The Blue force, which is to concentrate at Olathe, will consist of a regiment of militia from Missouri, the seventh infantry and a battalion of engineers from Fort Leavenworth, and artillery, cavalry, signal corps and sanitary troops from Fort Riley and Fort Leavenworth. This will make about a brigade of infantry on each side, reinforced strongly with cavalry, field artillery and other auxiliary troops.

The plans contemplate maneuvering over a large area in this portion of Kansas.

It is not possible to go into the plans in detail without revealing secrets but it is stated that many surprises and most interesting situations are in store for the opposing commanders. The campaign enables the two large garrisons of Fort Riley and Fort Leavenworth to participate in an important maneuver campaign without any great expense since they will be able to march to the points of concentration.

BOYS RAISED FLIES TO SELL

Prizes Offered for Largest Catch Developed Commercial Instinct in Eastern Youths.

Flushing, N. Y., May 30.—A campaign against the house fly, which was started by the town authorities here has resulted in a curious complication, owing to the rivalry of small boys for the prizes offered to those turning in the largest quantity of dead flies.

As the campaign waxed hotter some of the ingenious boy contestants devised fly breeding establishments, which insured them a maximum "catch" with a minimum amount of labor. Tainted meat or molasses was used to encourage the flies. With an improvised trap of mosquito netting hung above the breeding place a catch of a pint or more was insured every day.

Members of the anti-fly society are uncertain whether to end their campaign or have a raid made on the breeding places.

BUSINESS MEN WORKED ON ROAD

Forty members of the Commercial club took part in the work. The party divided into two sections, each taking a different road and met in Palmyra for a dinner in the afternoon in which the Palmyra Commercial club took part. Good roads speeches were made at the dinner. The party returned to Hannibal in motor cars late at night.

LINERS CRASHED WHILE NEAR PORT

Eighty-One Passengers in a Panic, a Mile From Brooklyn.

REMEMBERED TITANIC DISASTER

Confusion of Signals Causes Collision in Clear Weather—Both Vessels Badly Damaged—Inquiry is Ordered.

New York, May 30.—The Porto Rican liner, Berwind, outward bound, rammed the French line steamship Hudson, coming in from Bordeaux, about a mile off Sixty-ninth street, Brooklyn, tearing a big hole in the port bow of the Hudson.

Eighty-one passengers, many of them women, who were on board the Hudson, were thrown into a panic when the crash occurred. They rushed up on deck in scant attire, and it was with difficulty that members of the crew restrained some from leaping overboard.

Weather Was Clear.

A strange feature of the collision, which will be investigated, is that it occurred in clear weather, and that Capt. David saw the Berwind when she was some distance away. He believes that Capt. Christopher of the Berwind misunderstood his signal or obeyed it too late.

Part of the Berwind's bow was torn away when she struck the Hudson. She turned about and made for the docks of the New York and Porto Rico Steamship company. Both boats will have to go into dry dock for repairs.

The Hudson had just cleared quarantine and was making for Pier 84 in the North river, when Capt. David sighted the Berwind off his port bow. She was bearing straight down on the Hudson.

Misunderstood Signal.

When the Berwind was within a few hundred feet of the Hudson, Capt. David signaled to her to keep on the port bow of his ship. He thinks Capt. Christopher understood the signal to mean that he was to bear to starboard, for this is what he did.

Then occurred the strange spectacle of one ocean liner bearing straight down upon another in clear weather, within sight of New York's skyscrapers. Capt. David turned his vessel sharply to port, thinking he might avoid the Berwind, but this only added to the confusion.

Women Fainted.

The Porto Rican boat came straight ahead to the Hudson's bow and then came the crash—a crash that threw some of the French liner's passengers out of their berths. A hole six feet square was torn in the Hudson's bow, well above the water line. No water was taken in by the Hudson, but Capt. David did not wait to investigate the damage. Instead he made for the nearest landing place.

While the liner was racing toward shore the panic-stricken passengers, remembering the Titanic disaster, begged the crew to lower the lifeboats. Several women fainted.

DEATH AROUSED CONSCIENCE

When He Could No Longer Use It, Californian Provides for Return of Stolen Money.

Fresno, Cal., May 30.—H. Avorkian, a peanut vender, who died here leaving a fortune of $50,000, confessed in a diary found with his will that much of his money had been obtained by theft and fraud and directed that such funds be returned to his victims.

The principal items of his confession were that as head of a religious society in Turkey he had absconded with several hundred dollars of the society's funds; that in searching through the ruins of a church he had found a bag of gold which rightfully belonged to the church and that he had defrauded a railroad company of $100 by collecting a claim for the theft from his trunk of an imaginary gold nugget.

Engine Struck Hose Cart.

Chicago, May 30.—George J. Laughlin, pipeman in the city fire department, was killed and Lieut. Morris O'Day and Frank Swickerath, also firemen, were dangerously injured when the hosecart in which they were responding to an alarm of fire was demolished in a collision with a Chicago Junction railway switch engine. Four other firemen escaped injury by jumping from the cart.

Mr. and Mrs. John King and family of Hopkins were in the city Wednesday the guests of Mrs. Stella Lawson.

Washington, May 30.—Anticipating a forced separation from his job as solicitor of the department of agriculture in consequence of the numerous demands for congressional investigation of his official conduct, George P. McCabe will take time by the forelock and quit the government service early in the fall, it was learned here. He is willing to step out under fire rather than be forced out, so his fellow employees in the department declare.

As a direct result of bad situation and the Akin resolution charging collusion between McCabe and other agriculture department officials to secure Secretary Wilson's son a $10,000 a year berth with a Colorado irrigation company, McCabe has lost the prestige he formerly had at the head of the department. This power which in effect made him the secretary of agriculture in all but title, has been absolute for the past few years. It was sufficient to practically force Dr. Harvey W. Wiley, the noted food expert and others not so well known from the service.

Blamed for Attacks on Wilson.
The many resolutions of inquiry have gotten on Secretary Wilson's nerves and McCabe, except for absolutely necessary visits on departmental matters, has been a stranger to the secretary's office for some weeks past. The aged secretary blames his solicitor for the attacks that have come just as he is nearing the close of a record-breaking service for a cabinet officer.

Soon after Representative Nelson introduced his resolution calling for an investigation of the meat inspection services and charging collusion between McCabe, Nelson, of the bureau of animal industry and the packing interests to lower inspection standards, McCabe sent his family to Ogden, where they will remain.

Was Center of Attack.
In the five or six resolutions introduced in the present congress demanding investigations of the department of agriculture McCabe was in effect the central point of attack. The most important of these were the probe into the dismissal of Dr. Wiley and a noted chemical associate, the charge of collusion between the department and promoters of Florida everglades, the attack on the federal meat inspection service and the resolutions introduced by Representative Akin of New York to investigate the publicity system of the department.

Testimony has been secured on all but the Akin resolution. Dr. Wiley was exonerated, testimony is still being taken in the everglades charges, in an effort to conclude before adjournment and the meat investigation has gone over till fall. In each McCabe was subjected to savage attacks. His action in the Wiley affair was characterized as unwarranted and high handed.

STUBBORN PRISONER RELEASED

Springfield Man Who Refused to Sign False Poverty Statement Freed by Judge.

Springfield, Mo., May 30.—A. L. Elliot, the prisoner in the Greene county jail who preferred to remain behind the bars to signing a false statement of poverty, which he maintained was included in the schedule for his freedom, was discharged upon an order from Judge Alfred Page of the criminal court. Elliot won his point and was not compelled to sign the papers. An effort to prove him insane failed. When informed of his discharge Elliot said: "Tell them I can't go yet. I'm eating my dinner."

Prison Sentence for Page.

Washington, May 30.—Five years in the penitentiary and $1,000 fine, the maximum penalty, was the sentence imposed in the criminal court on Henry Page, a New York linen broker, convicted of slandering Representative Clayton of Alabama and other members. Motion for a new trial was overruled, but the defendant was paroled and an appeal will be taken.

Big Liner Ran Aground.

New York, May 30.—The Hamburg-American liner Moltke, outward bound for Naples, went aground on the edge of Ambrose channel. The vessel was floated on the rising tide late in the afternoon and it is believed sustained no serious damage. The Moltke, shortly after being floated, cleared the bar and continued on its voyage.

Acquitted of Baby Poisoning.

New York, May 30.—Winifred Ankers, the young woman accused of poisoning nine babies in the Brooklyn hospital and infants' home, was acquitted. The crowd which filled the courtroom cheered the verdict.

RETAIN THEIR RACIAL TYPE

Gipsies in Spain Are of That Country Only Because It Is Their Birthplace.

One of the things to attract the notice of every traveler that visits Spain is that strange race which he finds scattered here and there in small groups in the remote rural districts or near the great centers of population. It presents a type that can be mistaken for no other in the Spanish dominions.

The lips thick, the eyes large, black and piercing, the hair long, black and straight, the complexion olive tinted, the Spanish gipsy, whether encamped in a sheltering ravine or under the arches of an aqueduct or in the shadow of an overhanging cliff, is indeed Spanish because born in Spain, but in all else he is a gipsy.

Time was when Spaniards of the true blue blood called gipsies "New Castilians," or "Egyptians," or "Moorish footpads;" but while their traits have undergone no change their name is now definitely gitanos, or gipsies.

Between fifty and sixty thousand is the number of them now in Spain, says America. Most of them have no fixed abode; but in some parts, and notably in Andalusia, there are several small settlements, for towns they can hardly be called, where these wanderers have taken possession of caves in the mountain side, whence they sally forth to tell fortunes and to fish. Wherever they are, they are inclined to be quarrelsome among themselves and to enforce their arguments by means of wicked looking knives, which they wield with great dexterity.

SOUNDS MADE BY ELEPHANTS

Those Familiar With the Animal Easily Recognize Meaning of Its Different Expressions.

Elephants are said to make use of a great variety of sounds in communicating with each other and in expressing their wants and feelings. Some are uttered by the trunk, some by the throat. The conjunctures in which either means of expression is employed cannot be strictly classified, as fear, pleasure, want and other emotions are sometimes indicated by the trunk, sometimes by the throat. An elephant rushing upon an assailant trumpets shrilly with fury. Fear is similarly expressed in a shrill, brassy trumpet, or by a roar from the lungs; pleasure by a continued low squeaking through the trunk or an almost inaudible purring sound from the throat. Want—a calf calling its mother—is chiefly expressed by the throat. A peculiar sound is made use of by elephants to express dislike or apprehension, and at the same time to intimidate, as when the cause of some alarm has not been clearly ascertained and the animals wish to deter an intruder. It is produced by rapping the end of the trunk smartly on the ground, a current of air hither-to retained being sharply emitted through the trunk as from a valve, at the moment of impact. The sound made resembles that of a large sheet of tin rapidly doubled.

Finally Excused.

A juror summoned to serve in the court of Judge Gates asked to be excused because of pressing business that he must attend to. The judge refused to excuse him and went on with the examination of other jurors. Every once in a while this juror would interrupt and ask to be excused because of the pressing needs of his business and the judge would command him to sit down. At last Judge Gates, losing patience, demanded: "And what is your business, sir, that is so pressing?"

"I am a guard at the smallpox hospital and I have left six smallpox patients there this morning who need my attention," he answered.

There was a stampede from the court room and the judge, holding his handkerchief to his nose, nodded for the juror to go.—Exchange.

Difference in Fathers.

Mme. de Stael, daughter of M. Necker, being at a ball with the daughter of M. de Guichen, lieutenant general of the marine, for whom she was in mourning, kept tormenting the latter to dance. The woman replied that she could not dance while she was in mourning for her father; but Mme. de Stael still importuned her, until she said:

"Consider, madame, if you had had the misfortune to lose your father, could you think of dancing so soon?" "Oh!" returned the other with a haughty air, "there is such a difference between fathers and fathers."

"True, madame," replied her companion, "there is a great difference. My father served his king and country for sixty years—yours, in a fortnight, has ruined both."

Women Who Know Silver.

Rich women who are ever on the watch for antique bits of silver or pewter, says the New York Tribune, have taken to carrying all silver-mounted microscopes, so that the hallmarks can be examined with ease and the accuracy of the date be determined.

Dealers in antiques are very apt to talk glibly of George II. William or of George III., and even of William and Mary, pieces of those of good Queen Anne, and this prattle is bound to make an impression with those who do not know, and can also fool the near-sighted customer. Hence the microscope and a little folded paper (not mentioned to the dealer), whereby the memory is refreshed.

WHEN ROYALTY VISITS US

Writer Recalls Sundry Times When Various Exalted Persons Failed to Disturb Our Composure.

Writing on the visit of the Connaughts to New York, F. D. Dunne in the Metropolitan Magazine says: "Other royal personages have looked us over in the past. The late king of England came to America before the war and must have been extremely active on his feet for at least 10,000 old ladies are still alive who danced with him. Princess Louise we always remember with respect as the first person who had the courage to speak out against the fifth and indecency of the American sleeping car of the time. We had Dom Pedro of Brazil with us for awhile. Ten years ago we were favored with the presence of Prince Henry of Prussia. Long before that came the king of the Sandwich Islands, an agreeable brown potentate with a taste for drawing to inside straight. It is so long ago that we can't recall whether the ladies of New York made themselves agreeable to him in the historic manner of the Cannibal Islands by asking him in to pick an acquaintance with them, but it is a fact of history that the proprietor of a hotel in Chicago did meet him at the door and inquire whether he wouldn't like to go to his room and wash up. Under all these honors, as far as we are informed, the American public bore itself with some degree of composure, but the arrival of the duke on a purely social visit was too much for the pent-up aristocratic emotions of all sections of the population, and they reeled him with as great a show of fealty as though he were the reigning prince and they his sworn subjects."

NO. 310.

ELEVATOR COMING

WILL BE SHIPPED FROM COUNCIL BLUFFS NEXT WEEK.

TOTAL COST IS $1483

Committee Is Still Short $250 But an Effort Will Be Made to Raise That Amount.

The elevator which was ordered a few weeks ago for the St. Francis hospital will be shipped next week from the factory at Council Bluffs, Ia., and is to be installed at the hospital by June 15.

The elevator and the installation of it will cost $1,483. The elevator is an electric one, modern and has the latest improvements and is specially designed for hospitals. Other hospitals over the country are using the same style of an elevator.

The soliciting committee, Messrs. C. J. Alderman and Nick Sturm, have raised the money to purchase the needed improvement for the hospital with the exception of $250. An effort will be made to raise that amount and as many have not subscribed toward the fund, it is hoped that they will now respond. Remember the elevator is a very great improvement for the hospital, the best institution in this part of the state, and takes the place of an old elevator, that is out-of-date and is fitted only to haul heavy loads instead of sick people. Subscriptions will be received if any one cares to contribute to the good cause, at the newspaper offices in the city or by sending them to Nick Sturm, who is treasurer of the fund. They will be appreciated by the hospital.

The soliciting committee, Messrs. Alderman and Sturm, while out in the city getting subscriptions, were unable to see all and hope that those they did not see will respond as the committee will appreciate it.

One-half of the money for the elevator is to be paid when the elevator is shipped, and the other half in thirty days after it is installed. All subscribers to the fund are requested to mail their checks for the amount they wish to contribute to the fund, to Nick Sturm, treasurer of the fund.

TO INSTITUTE SUIT.

Against Wabash Railroad in Federal Court at St. Louis—Filed by Prosecuting Attorney Wright.

Prosecuting Attorney George Pat Wright filed an information Thursday against the Wabash railroad company in the Federal court at St. Louis for the purpose of seeking permission of the court to institute and prosecute a suit against that railroad company to remove and correct the State street bridge. It is necessary to take this step as the railroad is in the hands of receivers and if permission is secured, then the case will come up before the circuit court here.

Many complaints are being made by the people about the bridge. It is impossible to get a full load of hay under the bridge.

BUYS CEMENT MACHINE.

Hughes Township to Have One to Make Cement Culverts—Is a Good Roads Township.

Hughes township, one of the banner good roads townships in the county, is to take more advanced steps for good roads. The following is from this week's Graham Record and shows what they are doing:

Hughes township board at their meeting Friday night contracted with the Merrill Culvert Core Co., of Winfield, Iowa, for a machine to make cement culverts. This board has been taking advanced steps the past two or three years in the art of "good road making." It is true their plans have been little more than experiments, but it is also true that the township is fast developing into the banner road township of the county, if indeed she does not now occupy that envied position.

Two years ago the township adopted the "contract system" for working roads. This would have proven entirely satisfactory had they been able to get the work done at the time needed. But, inasmuch as Hughes is largely an agriculture and stock raising township, and her citizens owning large farms and having more work than they could do, the bids for the township contracts necessarily had to come from outside districts. This greatly handicapped them, as the experiment was new and not generally known to outsiders, therefore their bids were limited, but the board thinks had they been able to get the work done, it would have been a great improvement over the old way.

Hughes township is "favored" with a large number of bridges and culverts to keep up. It has tried tile and corrugated steel culverts with fairly good success and was among the first in the county to build cement bridges and culverts. The frame work for shaping the culverts have been made of wood, and while the culvert was allright they proved a little expensive, as the wooden frame was generally lost after one time using it. The new machine is made of steel and shapes the culvert to any size desired, up to 48 inches, and one machine will do for all culverts.

IS DANGEROUS MAN LOOKS MUCH BETTER

ROGERS BEING HELD AT JAIL HERE, ESCAPED FROM CLARINDA

WILL NOT TAKE HIM BACK

Asylum Says He Is a Hospital Tramp and Has Been in Sixteen or Seventeen Asylums.

Walter Rogers, who was arrested in Maryville last week, and is now in the county jail here, is an escaped lunatic from the asylum at Clarinda, stated Dr. Max Witte of that asylum in a letter to Sheriff W. R. Tilson. Dr. Witte also says that he is a dangerous man to let run at large as he has criminal tendencies and that as far as they know has been in 16 or 17 asylums over the country.

In the letter, Dr. Witte said that if Sheriff Tilson would bring the man to Braddyville, Ia., that he would send some one for him. But evidently they had a change of heart, for Dr. Witte telephoned to Sheriff Tilson Wednesday night and told him that they would not take him back at Clarinda, since he was a hospital tramp and had escaped, leaving that state. He said that the board of control of the hospital had met on Wednesday and decided to not to take him back as the man did not reside in that state.

Sheriff Tilson will bring the matter up before the county court at their session to be held next week and let them decide. Rogers is about 35 years old and was caught here turning switches in the Wabash and Burlington railroad yards. He escaped from the Clarinda asylum two weeks ago and claimed that he walked from that place to College Springs, Ia., and from there to Blanchard, Ia., where he caught a train and came to Maryville. He was sent to the Clarinda asylum last fall and was in that place until the time he escaped.

IMPROVEMENTS MADE AT OAK HILL CEMETERY BRINGS

Committee in Charge is Giving Personal Attention to Work Being Done—Was in Shameful Plight.

Since the city on account of limited funds has been unable to keep in good condition the Oak Hill cemetery, north of Maryville, many of the grave owners have gone together and have raised $250 for the purpose of improving the cemetery.

The committee that has the work in charge is composed of Fred Kurtz, Mrs. C. T. Bell and S. G. Gilliam. Mr. Kurtz is giving the work his personal supervision and at the present time, the road leading to the cemetery has been dragged and improved, the grass in the cemetery mowed, and the entrance road into the place has been filled with cinders. The road to the west of the cemetery is now being put in good condition and hitchhacks will be put up soon on the west side of the road for the convenience of the people. The committee will make an effort to see that the sidewalks are in good condition from the city to the cemetery and that the road is dragged from time to time.

Heretofore, the cemetery has not been kept in very good shape. The grass has been allowed to grow and it has been a very unsightly place. With the improvements already made and what they will make later on, the cemetery will look like a new place.

Lon Shanks, who is sexton of the cemetery, is only allowed $60 a year. He has been unable to keep the place in good shape on this salary.

Mayor Robey and the city are working in sympathy with the committee and an effort will be made by the city by next year so as they will take more care of the cemetery. It is hoped, however, that all the grave owners will help out the committee in the work.

TEST WELLS LOOK ENCOURAGING

Wells Being Dug in East Maryville to See if Supply of Water for City Can Be Had.

Six test wells have been dug east of Maryville near the Wabash railroad by the board of public works to see if a well supply of water could be had for the city, and all of them are good wells and look encouraging for a well supply. In all of the wells is a good supply of water and in two of them, the indications were excellent that a good quantity of water could be found, as a bed of sand and gravel was found.

Work on these wells will stop until Monday when more machinery will be had. They intend to go deeper in some of these wells, as some of them are only thirty feet deep.

Memorial Day was observed in Maryville today by the Sedgwick Post, G. A. R. and the W. R. C., who had charge of the exercises and by the citizens in making this anniversary a loving tribute to patriotism. Many of the business houses and residences were decorated with flags, and the banks were closed all day and many of the stores closed during the afternoon.

The graves of the fallen veterans in the cemeteries were decorated by a committee composed of Charles Hyslop, Benbow, James Croy, J. E. O'Neal, J. M. Evans, John G. Grems, Noah Sipes and N. Sisson.

The declamatory contest was held at the Christian church this afternoon in charge of Rev. C. H. John. There were only three of the Sunday schools entered in the contest. The contestants being Ernest Moore from the First M. E. Church Sunday school; Edgar Hull from the Baptist Sunday school, and Miss Meriam Holt from the Christian Church Sunday school.

The rest of the program at the church consisted of music by the Ladies band and a solo "Star Spangled Banner" by Mrs. F. P. Robinson.

After the exercises at the church, the people marched to the court house square where the Cenotaph was dedicated under the direction of Charles Hyslop. The address was given by Dr. J. S. Ford and Rev. S. M. Harkness presented the prizes to the winner of declamatory contest.

Following is the roll of honor, dead in and around Maryville, as taken from the records of Sedgwick Post, G. A. R.:

DICKENS FITTED FOR STAGE

Kate Field, Excellent Judge of Character, Confident He Might Have Been Great Actor.

No one ever paid a much higher tribute to Dickens than did Kate Field. She had the soul of a poet, a discriminating taste in art and literature and wide knowledge of the world. In mentality she was fully as strong as either of her brilliant brothers, David, Dudley, Stephen J. or Cyrus W., and she certainly was as good if not a better judge of character.

She once wrote an appreciation of Dickens in which she declared the world lost its greatest actor when Boz became a writer. She gave a description of one of Dickens readings that was masterly in its vividness of detail. Such versatility as she credited Dickens with displaying as he assumed the character of first one and then another of his creations, the pithos, the humor, the tragedy he put into a tone, the marvelous way in which he stirred the emotions of old and young in his audience, would appear to be a bit extravagant were it not that now and then in later years some old man, looked upon as stern and unemotional, told with faltering voice how he stood in line all one night to buy a ticket to one of Boz readings, and then went on to talk just about as Miss Field wrote, only before he got as far along in his story the tears were running down his wrinkled cheeks—his old heart strings still attune to the magic of The Master.

New Office.

The long-discussed Greater Berlin "Zweck-Verband" (county council is the only intelligible translation available) has formally come into being with the election of Herr Steinger, city chamberlain of Berlin, as "Verbandsdirektor." His functions will be many and difficult, for the "Verband" is a league of the cities, towns, villages and boroughs which comprise "Greater Berlin," and is intended to create a metropolitan area of 200 square miles, with a gross population of 4,250,000, over which there is to be central administrative authority. Each community sends delegates to the "league council, and it is this body over which Herr Steinger will preside. Berlin in a spirit of magnanimity declined to accept the majority of delegates to which its vast population entitled it, and it is content to be voted down on occasion by a hostile combination of lesser boroughs. The "Verband" will not interfere in any respect with the individual liberties and prerogatives of its constituent members.

Buried Without Trappings of Woe.

In accordance with the written wish of the late Graham Gilmour, the well-known airman, who met his death at Richmond, Surrey, England, the other day,—that his funeral might be "merry and bright," the coffin was taken from Richmond to Mickleham in a motor car, which was draped with blue, and the grave was lined with azaleas and ivy. The flowers sent were principally daffodils, violets, and carnations. A bunch of mimosa and violets bore the inscription: "In sorrowing memory of one whose youthful spirit and kindly words cheered a day in an old woman's lonely life."

His "Dutch Courage."

A rat found his food supply missing after the distillery was closed and there were no more scraps from dinner pails. He had always been a precise rat and a teetotaler, but now the emergency was extreme and he took to drink.

A small quantity of young liquor had been left behind and this the rat tasted cautiously. It was like liquid barbed wire and the jolt was instantaneous. He took another drink and straightened up, filled with new sensations. A third put him on his haunches and he exclaimed loudly: "Bring on your cat."

Refreshments of ice cream and cake were served. The union meets the last Tuesday night in each month.

Will Picnic Tomorrow.

Students and teachers of the Maryville Business College will play tomorrow. The clickety-click of the typewriters and the adding machines will not be heard, neither will the trial balances refuse to balance; and the shorthand notes may look like chicken tracks—for who cares. Something near one hundred students will go to Bridgewater, near Arkoe, tomorrow morning on the Burlington, and will spend the day in sport and recreation. The Burlington will put on a special car for them, and a great time is expected.

Crystal baskets of red clover blossoms were placed at intervals on the long table, while woven strands of the stems and blossoms of the same flower hung from the chandelier and were fastened to the corners and sides of the table. Those in the party were Miss Goodson, Mrs. Luther Forsyth and her sister, Mrs. Frank Shoemaker, Jr., of Oklahoma City, Okla., Mrs. Ferdinand Townsend, Mrs. Clive Graves, Mrs. Fayette Bellows, Miss Jennie Garrett, Miss Maud McCluskey, Miss Clara Sturm, Miss Mae Orear, Miss Jessie Parcher and the hostess.

Her Eightieth Birthday.

On Monday May 27, a most enjoyable surprise was given Mrs. Julia Hart, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. H. Carmichael, northwest of Maryville, by a number of her friends and former neighbors, the occasion being her 80th birthday. She received a number of gifts of postcards, bouquets and potted plants. Dinner was served soon after the guests arrived and the afternoon passed quickly with music, social conversation and eating ice cream. The guests departed, wishing their aged friend many more such happy birthday anniversaries. Those present were: Mrs. S. W. Scott, Mrs. John Griffey, Mrs. S. E. Fisher, Mrs. R. Neidel, Mrs. A. S. Hart, Jr., Mrs. Everett Carmichael and the Misses Grace and Nellie Fisher and Esther Neidel and Little Mary Fisher, Helen Glaze, Loren and Alta Hart. Mrs. Hart came to Nodaway county with her husband, the late A. C. Hart, in 1870, and lived on a farm near Maryville 30 years. Since that time she has resided in Stanberry where her husband died in 1908. She and her family have always been held in the highest esteem and many friends will join her guests in wishing her more years of contentment and health.

The next meeting will be in two weeks at the home of Mrs. John Sprague. The members are to take their work, and Canada is the subject for study.

Mrs. Robinson's Reception.

Wednesday was not a June day, but it was a perfect day, even though a poet or somebody has said that there is nothing so perfect as a day in June. It was a perfectly comfortable day, for a reception and not one of the many guests who attended the reception given by Mrs. James B. Robinson Wednesday afternoon would have exchanged it for any June day they ever saw. The guests were greeted in the reception hall by Mrs. F. P. Robinson, Mrs. Charles T. Bell and Mrs. Frank G. Shoemaker, Sr. In the parlors Mrs. Robinson presented her two nieces, Miss Mabel Lloyd of Wichita, Kan., and Miss Lela Chilton of St. Joseph, in whose honor she was entertaining. The reception hall and parlors were decorated in ferns and white peonies. Assisting the hostess in the parlors were Mrs. R. G. Sanders, Mrs. William Wallis, Jr., Mrs. Charles Jackson and Mrs. Ralph W. Eversole. Punch was served by Mrs. Ferdinand Townsend and Miss Donna Sisson, who were assisted by Miss Marie Brink, Miss Laura Barnmann, Miss Helen Leffler and Miss Lulu Todd. In the dining room, where the ices and cakes were served, the decorations were of Killarney roses, in yellow. The hostesses here were Mrs. George P. Bellows and Mrs. W. A. Rickenbrode and they were assisted by Miss Emma Kildow, Miss Majory Willey, Miss Geneva Willey and Miss Mildred Robinson. Masterpieces of music were played all afternoon from the victrola.

Her "Washout" On the Line.

The Sigma Delta Chi sorority gave a novel "linen shower" to one of its members Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Carterine Miller, with Miss Emma Kildow as hostess. The affair was a surprise for Miss Mary Orecutt, who is to be married next Tuesday, June 4, to Mr. Arthur L. Fisher of Tyro, Kan. Miss Orecutt supposed the Chi's had gathered for one of their delightful times together, as it had been a year since all had met, several of the members, herself included, having been engaged in teaching a long distance from home. Everybody knows that these sorority girls are noted for their jokes and tricks on one another, so when soon after the arrival of everybody, Miss Mary was blindfolded and told that she was to be initiated that there was "a wash out on the line," and that she was to go and see what she could do for it, she gamely started out to meet her everlasting fate by falling into a tub of water, or meet some other calamity, as she supposed. She was given a market basket and led to the dining room, where, on feeling around, she found a clothes line stretched about the room. She was told to take the articles from the line and put them in the basket, which she did. On returning to the parlor with her burden she was unblindfolded and found in her basket eighteen pieces of beautifully embroidered linen, gifts of the sorority girls. The rest of the evening was spent informally and refreshments were served. Those in the party were: Misses Mary and Alice Orecutt, Miss LaRue Kemp, Miss Estella Mason, Miss Lois Halley, Miss Phyllis Saylor, Miss Nellie Hudson, Miss Margaret McDougal, Miss Dora Day, Miss Hettie Anthony, Miss Emma Kildow, Miss Maud Bent, Miss Grace Langan, Miss Mary Ogden, Miss Golda Airy, Miss Jessie Mutz, Ruby Lorraine.

INSURRECTOS TAKE TO HILLS

Cuban Negroes Break Up Into Small Bands of Raiders.

TO FORCE CLASH WITH MARINES

Surrender to Americans Would Save Many From Trial for Treason by Island Government—Gomez says Revolt is Crushed.

Washington, May 30.—Desultory and destructive guerilla warfare is expected to follow the mobilization of the Cuban government troops in Guantanamo, where the negro revolt is strongest, according to meager advices received at the state department.

Dispatches indicate that insurrectos have broken up into small rapidly moving bands, conducting raids of destruction.

The situation resembles that existing in Mexico in the early stages of the revolution. The criminals are beginning to take advantage of the disturbed conditions for organized robbery and plunder. As for the real rebels, the government military leaders appear to have reached the conclusion that they will not stand up for a regular pitched battle. Therefore instead of attempting to surround the rebels, they are dividing their forces into small units to guard foreign properties. Evidence of this purpose appeared when 40 rural guardsmen were ordered to proceed to Daiquiri to protect the property of the Spanish-American Iron company.

Quiet at Nipe Bay.

Naval advices from the commander of the gunboat Nashville, which made a record breaking run from the south to the north coast of Cuba in answer to an alarm from the American owned plantation in the vicinity of Nipe Bay, confirmed the report as to existing quiet in that quarter.

A naval officer who has had much experience in Cuban methods expressed the belief that the Cuban insurrectos were now meditating forcing a clash with the American marines near Guantanamo. Of course, they could not expect to prevail in a battle, but their purpose might be served by inducing the American marine or naval officers to accept their surrender, so that they might not be forced to yield to the Cuban government forces and to be tried for treason and perhaps killed.

Gomez Issues Proclamation.

Havana, May 30.—The capital still awaits with keenest expectancy news of decisive fighting in the western part of Oriente province, where the national and insurgent forces have been face to face for several days.

In the meantime President Gomez has deemed it expedient to make an official statement with respect to the situation as the government views it, and has issued a proclamation in which he says the revolt is crushed everywhere except in Oriente, and that the majority of the negro race is loyal to the government.

The board of curators of the university has purchased 300 copies and will send them to the high schools and secondary schools of the state. About 1,700 copies were issued and half of these were sold before the books left the printing plant. The book is dedicated to Judge John D. Lawson, former dean of the school of law.

CHICAGO GETS AEROPLANE MAIL

OPPOSING FORCES TO WORK FROM LAWRENCE AND OLATHE.

Maneuvers Will Cover Large Area and Will Develop Interesting Problems for Commanders.

Washington, May 30.—It was stated at the war department that arrangements for the maneuver campaign at Fort Leavenworth are nearing completion. The tentative plan of campaign concentrates the opposing forces at Lawrence and Olathe, about 30 miles apart. The Red force, which is concentrated at Lawrence, will consist of the entire Kansas national guard, a regiment of militia infantry from Oklahoma, and field artillery, cavalry, signal corps and medical troops from Fort Riley and Fort Leavenworth.

The Blue force, which is to concentrate at Olathe, will consist of a regiment of militia from Missouri, the seventh infantry and a battalion of engineers from Fort Leavenworth, and artillery, cavalry, signal corps and sanitary troops from Fort Riley and Fort Leavenworth. This will make about a brigade of infantry on each side, reinforced strongly with cavalry, field artillery and other auxiliary troops.

The plans contemplate maneuvering over a large area in this portion of Kansas.

It is not possible to go into the plans in detail without revealing secrets but it is stated that many surprises and most interesting situations are in store for the opposing commanders. The campaign enables the two large garrisons of Fort Riley and Fort Leavenworth to participate in an important maneuver campaign without any great expense since they will be able to march to the points of concentration.

BOYS RAISED FLIES TO SELL

Prizes Offered for Largest Catch Developed Commercial Instinct in Eastern Youths.

Flushing, N. Y., May 30.—A campaign against the house fly, which was started by the town authorities here has resulted in a curious complication, owing to the rivalry of small boys for the prizes offered to those turning in the largest quantity of dead flies.

As the campaign waxed hotter some of the ingenious boy contestants devised fly breeding establishments, which insured them a maximum "catch" with a minimum amount of labor. Tainted meat or molasses was used to encourage the flies. With an improvised trap of mosquito netting hung above the breeding place a catch of a pint or more was insured every day.

Members of the anti-fly society are uncertain whether to end their campaign or have a raid made on the breeding places.

BUSINESS MEN WORKED ON ROAD

Members of Hannibal Commercial Club Don Overalls and Build 12 Miles of Highway.

Hannibal, Mo., May 30.—Lawyers, doctors, leading business men, members of the Hannibal Commercial club, put on overalls early in the morning and jumpers and worked on the roads between this city and Palmyra, Mo., 12 miles away. Forty members of the Commercial club took part in the work. The party divided into two sections, each taking a different road and met in Palmyra for a dinner in the afternoon in which the Palmyra Commercial club took part. Good roads speeches were made at the dinner. The party returned to Hannibal in motor cars late at night.

LINERS CRASHED WHILE NEAR PORT

Eighty-One Passengers in a Panic, a Mile From Brooklyn.

REMEMBERED TITANIC DISASTER

Confusion of Signals Causes Collision in Clear Weather—Both Vessels Badly Damaged—Inquiry is Ordered.

New York, May 30.—The Porto Rican liner, Berwind, outward bound, rammed the French line steamship Hudson, coming in from Bordeaux, about a mile off Sixty-ninth street, Brooklyn, tearing a big hole in the port bow of the Hudson.

Eighty-one passengers, many of them women, who were on board the Hudson, were thrown into a panic when the crash occurred. They rushed up on deck in scant attire, and it was with difficulty that members of the crew restrained some from leaping overboard.

Weather Was Clear.

A strange feature of the collision, which will be investigated, is that it occurred in clear weather, and that Capt. David saw the Berwind when she was some distance away. He believes that Capt. Christopher of the Berwind misunderstood his signal or obeyed it too late.

Part of the Berwind's bow was torn away when she struck the Hudson. She turned about and made for the docks of the New York and Porto Rico Steamship company. Both boats will have to go into dry dock for repairs.

The Hudson had just cleared quarantine and was making for Pier 84 in the North river, when Capt. David sighted the Berwind off his port bow. She was bearing straight down on the Hudson.

Misunderstood Signal.

When the Berwind was within a few hundred feet of the Hudson, Capt. David signaled to her to keep on the port bow of his ship. He thinks Capt. Christopher understood the signal to mean that he was to bear to starboard, for this is what he did.

Then occurred the strange spectacle of one ocean liner bearing straight down upon another in clear weather, within sight of New York's skyscrapers. Capt. David turned his vessel sharply to port, thinking he might avoid the Berwind, but this only added to the confusion.

Women Fainted.

The Porto Rican boat came straight ahead to the Hudson's bow and then came the crash—a crash that threw some of the French liner's passengers out of their berths. A hole six feet square was torn in the Hudson's bow, well above the water line. No water was taken in by the Hudson, but Capt. David did not wait to investigate the damage. Instead he made for the nearest landing place.

While the liner was racing toward shore the panic-stricken passengers, remembering the Titanic disaster, begged the crew to lower the lifeboats. Several women fainted.

DEATH AROUSED CONSCIENCE

When He Could No Longer Use It, Californian Provides for Return of Stolen Money.

Fresno, Cal., May 30.—H. Avorkian, a peanut vender, who died here leaving a fortune of $50,000, confessed in a diary found with his will that much of his money had been obtained by theft and fraud and directed that such funds be returned to his victims.

The principal items of his confession were that as head of a religious society in Turkey he had absconded with several hundred dollars of the society's funds; that in searching through the ruins of a church he had found a bag of gold which rightfully belonged to the church and that he had defrauded a railroad company of $100 by collecting a claim for the theft from his trunk of an imaginary gold nugget.

Engine Struck Hose Cart.

Chicago, May 30.—George J. Laughlin, pipeman in the city fire department, was killed and Lieut. Morris O'Day and Frank Swickerath, also firemen, were dangerously injured when the hosecart in which they were responding to an alarm of fire was demolished in a collision with a Chicago Junction railway switch engine. Four other firemen escaped injury by jumping from the cart.

Mr. and Mrs. John King and family of Hopkins were in the city Wednesday the guests of Mrs. Stella Lawson.

Lady in Goodwater Describes Her Distressing Experience and Tells How She Was Finally Relieved.

Goodwater, Mo.—"Ever since I was a little girl," says Mrs. Riley Laramore, "I was a great sufferer from dyspepsia. I suffered misery after eating, and had terrible heartburn."

I thought I had to suffer this way as long as I lived, but when I began to take Theodor's Black-Draught, in small doses, every night, the heartburn was all gone in a few days, and I could eat without distress.

I took two small packages in all, and although that was some time ago, the dyspepsia has not returned.

I speak a good word for Theodor's Black-Draught whenever I have the opportunity."

If eating causes distress, we urge you to try Theodor's Black-Draught. It cleanses the system, helps the stomach to digest its food, regulates the bowels, and stimulates the liver.

It acts gently and is without bad after-effects. Try it. Price 25c.

M'CABE TO LEAVE FEDERAL SERVICE

Willing to Step Out Rather Than be Ousted, Say Fellow Employees.

FAMILY ALREADY IN OGDEN, UTAH

Solicitor Has Not Been in Secretary's Office for Several Weeks—Action in Wiley Affair Subject of Much Criticism.

Washington, May 30.—Anticipating a forced separation from his job as solicitor of the department of agriculture in consequence of the numerous demands for congressional investigation of his official conduct, George P. McCabe will take time by the forelock and quit the government service early in the fall, it was learned here. He is willing to step out under fire rather than be forced out, so his fellow employees in the department declare.

As a direct result of bad situation and the Akin resolution charging collusion between McCabe and other agriculture department officials to secure Secretary Wilson's son a $10,000 a year berth with a Colorado irrigation company, McCabe has lost the prestige he formerly had at the head of the department. This power which in effect made him the secretary of agriculture in all but title, has been absolute for the past few years. It was sufficient to practically force Dr. Harvey W. Wiley, the noted food expert and others not so well known from the service.

Blamed for Attacks on Wilson.

The many resolutions of inquiry have gotten on Secretary Wilson's nerves and McCabe, except for absolutely necessary visits on departmental matters, has been a stranger to the secretary's office for some weeks past. The aged secretary blames his solicitor for the attacks that have come just as he is nearing the close of a record-breaking service for a cabinet officer.

Soon after Representative Nelson introduced his resolution calling for an investigation of the meat inspection services and charging collusion between McCabe, Nelson, of the bureau of animal industry and the packing interests to lower inspection standards, McCabe sent his family to Ogden, where they will remain.

Was Center of Attack. In the five or six resolutions introduced in the present congress demanding investigations of the department of agriculture McCabe was in effect the central point of attack. The most important of these were the probe into the dismissal of Dr. Wiley and a noted chemical associate, the charge of collusion between the department and promoters of Florida everglades, the attack on the federal meat inspection service and the resolutions introduced by Representative Akin of New York to investigate the publicity system of the department.

Testimony has been secured on all but the Akin resolution. Dr. Wiley was exonerated, testimony is still being taken in the everglades charges, in an effort to conclude before adjournment and the meat investigation has gone over till fall. In each McCabe was subjected to savage attacks. His action in the Wiley affair was characterized as unwarranted and high handed.

STUBBORN PRISONER RELEASED

Springfield Man Who Refused to Sign False Poverty Statement Freed by Judge.

Springfield, Mo., May 30.—A. L. Elliot, the prisoner in the Greene county jail who preferred to remain behind the bars to signing a false statement of poverty, which he maintained was included in the schedule for his freedom, was discharged upon an order from Judge Alfred Page of the criminal court. Elliot won his point and was not compelled to sign the papers. An effort to prove him insane failed. When informed of his discharge Elliot said:

"Tell them I can't go yet. I'm eating my dinner."

Prison Sentence for Page.

Washington, May 30.—Five years in the penitentiary and $1,000 fine, the maximum penalty, was the sentence imposed in the criminal court on Henry Page, a New York linen broker, convicted of slandering Representative Clayton of Alabama and other members. Motion for a new trial was overruled, but the defendant was paroled and an appeal will be taken.

Big Liner Ran Aground.

New York, May 30.—The Hamburg-American liner Moltke, outward bound for Naples, went aground on the edge of Ambrose channel. The vessel was floated on the rising tide late in the afternoon and it is believed sustained no serious damage. The Moltke, shortly after being floated, cleared the bar and continued on its voyage.

Acquitted of Baby Poisoning.

New York, May 30.—Winifred Ankers, the young woman accused of poisoning nine babies in the Brooklyn hospital and infants' home, was acquitted. The crowd which filled the courtroom cheered the verdict.

RETAIN THEIR RACIAL TYPE

Gipsies in Spain Are of That Country Only Because It Is Their Birthplace.

One of the things to attract the notice of every traveler that visits Spain is that strange race which he finds scattered here and there in small groups in the remote rural districts or near the great centers of population. It presents a type that can be mistaken for no other in the Spanish dominions.

The lips thick, the eyes large, black and piercing, the hair long, black and straight, the complexion olive tinted, the Spanish gipsy, whether encamped in a sheltering ravine or under the arches of an aqueduct or in the shadow of an overhanging cliff, is indeed Spanish because born in Spain, but in all else he is a gipsy.

Time was when Spaniards of the true blue blood called gipsies "New Castilians," or "Egyptians," or "Moorish footpads;" but while their traits have undergone no change their name is now definitely gitanos, or gipsies.

Between fifty and sixty thousand is the number of them now in Spain, says America. Most of them have no fixed abode; but in some parts, and notably in Andalusia, there are several small settlements, for towns they can hardly be called, where these wanderers have taken possession of caves in the mountain side, whence they sail forth to tell fortunes and to fitch. Wherever they are, they are inclined to be quarrelsome among themselves and to enforce their arguments by means of wicked looking knives, which they wield with great dexterity.

SOUNDS MADE BY ELEPHANTS

Those Familiar With the Animal Easily Recognize Meaning of Its Different Expressions.

Elephants are said to make use of a great variety of sounds in communicating with each other and in expressing their wants and feelings. Some are uttered by the trunk, some by the throat. The conjunctures in which either means of expression is employed cannot be strictly classified, as fear, pleasure, want and other emotions are sometimes indicated by the trunk, sometimes by the throat. An elephant rushing upon an assailant trumpets shrilly with fury. Fear is similarly expressed in a shrill, brassy trumpet, or by a roar from the lungs; pleasure by a continued low squeaking through the trunk or an almost inaudible purring sound from the throat. Want—as a calf calling its mother—is chiefly expressed by the trunk. A peculiar sound is made use of by elephants to express dislike or apprehension, and at the same time to intimidate, as when the oar of some alarm has not been clearly ascertained and the animals wish to deter an intruder. It is produced by rapping the end of the trunk smartly on the ground, a current of air hither to retained being sharply emitted through the trunk as from a valve, at the moment of impact. The sound made resembles that of a large sheet of tin rapidly doubled.

Finally Excused.

A juror summoned to serve in the court of Judge Gates asked to be excused because of pressing business that he must attend to. The judge refused to excuse him and went on with the examination of other jurors. Every once in a while this juror would interrupt and ask to be excused because of the pressing needs of his business and the judge would command him to sit down. At last Judge Gates, losing patience, demanded:

"And what is your business, sir, that is so pressing?"

"I am a guard at the smallpox hospital and I have left six smallpox patients there this morning who need my attention," he answered.

There was a stampede from the court room and the judge, holding his handkerchief to his nose, nodded for the juror to go.—Exchange.

Difference in Fathers.

Mme. de Stael, daughter of M. Necker, being at a ball with the daughter of M. de Guichen, lieutenant general of the marine, for whom she was in mourning, kept tormenting the latter to dance. The woman replied that she could not dance while she was in mourning for her father; but Mme. de Stael still importuned her, until she said:

"Consider, madame, if you had had the misfortune to lose your father, could you think of dancing so soon?" "Oh!" returned the other with a haughty air, "there is such a difference between fathers and fathers."

"True, madame," replied her companion, "there is a great difference. My father served his king and country for sixty years—yours, in a fortnight, has ruined both."

Women Who Know Silver.

Rich women who are ever on the watch for antique bits of silver or pewter, says the New York Tribune, have taken to carrying a small silver-mounted microscope, so that the hallmarks can be examined with ease and the accuracy of the date be determined.

Dealers in antiques are very apt to talk glibly of George II. silver or of George III. and even of William and Mary, pieces of those of good Queen Anne, and this prattle is bound to make an impression with those who do not know, and can also fool the near-sighted customer. Hence the microscope and a little folded paper (not mentioned to the dealer), whereby the memory is refreshed.

WHEN ROYALTY VISITS US

Writer Recalls Sundry Times When Various Exalted Persons Failed to Disturb Our Composure.

Writing on the visit of the Connaughts to New York, F. D. Dunne in the Metropolitan Magazine says:

"Other royal personages have looked us over in the past. The late king of England came to America before the war and must have been extremely active on his feet for at least 10,000 old ladies are still alive who danced with him. Princess Louise we always remember with respect as the first person who had the courage to speak out against the filth and indecency of the American sleeping car of the time. We had Dom Pedro of Brazil with us for awhile. Ten years ago we were favored with the presence of Prince Henry of Prussia. Long before that came the king of the Sandwich islands, an agreeable brown potentate with a taste for drawing to inside straight. It is so long ago that we can't recall whether the ladies of New York made themselves agreeable to him in the historic manner of the Cannibal islands by asking him in to pick an acquaintance with them, but it is a fact of history that the proprietor of a hotel in Chicago did meet him at the door and inquire whether he wouldn't like to go to his room and wash up! Under all these honors, as far as we are informed, the American public bore itself with some degree of composure, but the arrival of the duke on a purely social visit was too much for the pent-up aristocratic emotions of all sections of the population, and they received him with as great a show of fealty as though he were the reigning prince and they his sworn subjects."
